TESTS SHOW GOOD RESULT

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 24.—Shopping as a contributory means of treating insanity is in vogue at the St. Louis insane asylum.

Sixty women patients, suffering with mild forms of mental diseases, are taking this novel course of treatment in the department stores during the busy yuletide.

One party of twenty women spent the greater part of today enjoying the outing, purchasing souvenirs for their friends and forgetting for the time the discipline of the big institution on Arsenal street. A like number will visit the stores later.

These journeys back into the world of the department stores and the activities which all women enjoy began last Thursday. Two attendants were in charge of the shoppers. Their uniforms were left behind and they abandoned, as far as possible, all evidences of authority.

Confessions of a Poacher.

It's grand sport, mister, the method of bringing "puse" to hand, but in my humble opinion it pales to the utmost insignificance when compared with ferreting rabbits with pocket nets over their holes on a moonlit night. The quiet, stealthy advance of the ferret, the rattle of the rabbit's underground sounding like distant thunder, their silent dash for liberty, with terror writ large in their bulging eyes, add of a nighttime a weirdness to the sport of which a man with the slightest touch of romance in his nature never tires of slugging.—Fry's Magazine.

MRS. GILMAN BURIED

Mother of Dona, Once Accused
Laid to Last Rest.

Dayton, O., Dec. 24.—The funeral of Mrs. Leah Gilman was held from the home on Monday, on Ring street, Rev. J. G. Huber, pastor of the Oak Street U. B. church and Rev. Seibert, pastor of the Lutheran church of Germantown, officiating.

The remains were removed to Germantown and laid to rest beside those of Dona Gilman, the daughter, whose cruel death at the hands of a fiend occurred little over a year ago.

LABOR UNION OF MILLION WORKERS

Building Trades Throughout
United States To Be Formed in Giant League.

PROPOSED BY GOMPERS.

UNDER NEW SCHEME LABOR CAN PROTECT ITSELF AGAINST THE
ORGANIZATION OF EMPLOYERS
WHICH IS SAID TO EXIST.

The plan to put all the building trades throughout the country into one organization was formally adopted at the meeting of organized labor at the Central Federated Union Monday in New York. This plan was proposed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, at the recent convention at Norfolk, Va. The new organization will have a membership of more than 1,000,000 workers.

Under this scheme a strike in one particular trade can be followed by sympathetic strikes throughout the country and thus force employers to agree to a settlement. The workers say that employers have an organization of the same kind, and that they are simply following their tactics.
